Choose the Pass That’s Right for You!
Change Cards are issued if more money than the required fare is inserted into the farebox. Before inserting money into the farebox be sure to tell the bus operator that you will need a Change Card. The farebox will deduct the fare from the total amount of money inserted and issue a Change Card with your remaining balance. Use the amount on the Change Card toward your fare the next time you ride the bus.

Day Passes can only be purchased onboard Centro buses from the farebox. If you wish to purchase a Day Pass, please inform the bus operator before placing money into the farebox. If you are eligible for Reduced Fare (Seniors 65+, Persons with disabilities, Medicare cardholders, youth ages 6-9), please inform the bus operator upon boarding.

When purchasing a Day Pass from the farebox, the Pass will print out from the top of the farebox on the back of a Transfer Card. Once purchased, the Day Pass may be used for unlimited rides on any bus during the next 24-hours after purchase. The Pass Type, Activation Date / Time, and Expiration Date / Time will be printed on the back. When boarding the bus for your next trip, simply swipe the Pass through the reader on the top right side of the farebox. If a Day Pass has expired, the farebox will alert the customer and the operator. At this time, the customer must pay their fare using an alternate payment method.

Transfers allow customers to move from one bus route to another to complete a one-way trip. Transfers are valid for 90 minutes from the time you board the first bus. Please be sure to ask the bus operator for a Transfer when boarding.

Additional fare required if traveling beyond Zone 1. Transfers are not needed when using a Day Pass.

Do not fold, bend, or allow your Pass to get wet. Drivers will not honor Passes that are damaged, mutilated, expired, or that are indicated as invalid by the farebox. CENTRO DOES NOT OFFER REFUNDS FOR MISPLACED OR DAMAGED RIDE PASSES.

The MAX Pass is valid on any Centro bus route for seven consecutive days from the first day of use. This Pass provides unlimited rides during the seven-day period and is limited to travel within the fare zone of purchase. Additional fare will be required when traveling to other fare zones.

When using a MAX Pass for the first time, customers must insert the MAX Pass into the farebox in order to activate the Pass. Once activated, the Activation Date / Time along with the Expiration Date / Time will be printed on the back of the MAX Pass. For all future uses, SWIPE the MAX Pass through the reader located on the top right side of the farebox upon boarding. If a MAX Pass has expired, the farebox will alert the customer and the operator. At this time, the customer must pay their fare using an alternate payment method.

Transfers are not needed when using a MAX Pass.

CENTRO DOES NOT OFFER REFUNDS FOR MISPLACED OR DAMAGED RIDE PASSES.
